Six Argentine economists who were detained in August 1976:

Mario Arnaldo Usablaga
Eduardo Alfredo Villamil
Alberto Constante Barbeito
Carlos Adolfo Barrera
Hector Pistonesi Castelli
Horacio Cialardini

The Council on Hemispheric Affairs (COHA) seek their release. They seem to be under civil maybe military detention. The Executive Board of the American Economic Association, at the urging of Nobel Prize winner, Wasily Leontief, plans to pass a resolution at its next annual meeting urging the release of these economists.
